*Jonathan Garcia,
Principal Planner*

- i. Base Reuse Plan Requirements
- ii. Previous Fort Ord Transportation Studies
- iii. TAMC-FORA 2016 Fee Reallocation Study Update Agreement

- Requires FORA to work with TAMC to monitor current and projected traffic service levels identified as “on-site” and “off-site” (pg. 196)
- Requires FORA to annually update CIP (pg. 202)

- 1997 Fort Ord Transportation Study
 - Based on May 1996 Draft Base Reuse Plan/subset of TAMC Regional Projects
- 2005 FORA Fee Reallocation Study
 - Identified need for FORA transportation obligations to be reviewed in context with regional and local planning

- Regional and local planning changes have occurred since 2005
- TAMC and Economic & Planning Systems recommend this Study to analyze current transportation needs and obligations

- Authorize the Executive Officer to execute Transportation Agency for Monterey County (TAMC)-Fort Ord Reuse Authority (FORA) 2016 Fee Reallocation Study Update Agreement, not to exceed $127,000
- FORA/TAMC staff to jointly select consultant to perform study
